

When It's Time

Lotte Kestner

There's nothing to put back
Like a tree, like a headstone with our words on
The seasons, they changed but I didn't know
All the stars never stepped from their posts the way I didn't
You and I
We're froze in the same night
And when it's time
Then it's time
When it's time
There's nothing to put back
Like a tree, like a headstone with our words on
The seasons, they changed but I didn't know
All the stars never stepped from their posts the way I didn't
I'm always on the run and I hate copy past for god's sake
You and I
We're froze in the same night
And when it's time
Then it's time
When it's time
