

Synthetic Generation

Deathstars

I play hell you play heaven, I'm death's own little star...
Can you trace the sins that haunt you
And play the Devils cards as I do I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be I am God for the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing I play death, you play alive, triple sixes to rise...
Can you see the visions I brought you
And the devilish games that I taught you I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be
I am God for the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing Synthetic generation
Stop not it's indifference high you must know... I am all that you see
I am all that you want me to be I am God for the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing I am God for the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing
I am God for the Antichrist
I'm blessed, yet damned
I'm fallen, yet resurrected
I am all of nothing I am all of nothing...
