

Fool for You

Alice Smith

That real, that deep, that burning, and amazing, unconditional, inseperable love.
That feel like forever, that always emotional and still exceptional love.
Can't nobody tell me nothin', said it is what it is.
Any mistake you make I-I just might forgive.
Right now, right now, in this very moment, I still love him like I loved him then.
I love him in and out and up and down and 'round and 'round and over and over again.
So rare, they swear that YOU just don't exist. There's only one person I can think of that makes me feel like this.
-I'm a fool, such a fool for you.-
That deep, that sweet, that soft and that wet, that fire, that funky stuff.
That up and that down, that front, that back.
Baby, I can't seem to get enough.
Ooh, baby, let me do it, let me do it 'til I'm satisfied.
Oh baby, now, right now, baby, I ain't got no more pride.
Sweet sugar, I surrender.
I don't want no other man. Baby, you win.
And you ain't never got to worry, ever got to worry, you'll never be alone again.
There's nothing, there's nothing that I wouldn't do.
I wrote a song about it, daddy.
Everybody know who I'm talking to.
-And I'm a fool, such a fool for you.-
-I'm a fool, such a fool for you.-
