

Anchor

Novo Amor

Took the breath from my open mouth
Never known how it broke me down
I went in circles somewhere else
Storing up on your summer glow
The best when your love was home
you went in search of someone else
And i hear your ship is comin' in
Your tears a sea for me to swim
And i hear a storm is comin' in
My dear is it all we've ever been?
Caught the air in your woven mouth
Leave it all i'll be heaving how you went
In search of someone else
Taught the hand that taut the bride
Both our eyes lock to the tide
We went in circles somewhere else
And i hear your ship is comin' in
Your tears a sea for me to swim
And i hear a storm is comin' in
My dear is it all we've ever been?
Anchor up to me, love.
Anchor up to me, love.
Anchor up to me, love.
Oh, Anchor up to me, love.
