

Runnin (feat. Rayven Justice)

Kay Cola

You love my way that I move
You take my hand
When you grab my hand
In the way you show me
I trust you, you trust me
Assessing the moment
It's the way that I move
You take my hand
You tell me when you don't care where we're going
And where you wanna take me, that's where my home is
I trust you, you trust me
Assessing the moment
Assessing the moment, the moment
I'll cherish the day, I won't be afraid
I won't go astray
I'll cherish the day, I won't be afraid
I won't go astray
You won't catch me RUNNIN,
RUNNIN away, RUNNIN away
RUNNIN away I came to change your plans
I can be your next make you forget about your last
I thought the last nigga gave you what you never had
A leader and protector baby, I can give you that
What you, what you afraid of
What you afraid of
I keep it straight up
Don't worry, this is real love
I keep it trill love
Won't never play up, won't hurt you
Damn??? this moment is perfect
I'll never leave, I never deserved you
I trust you, you trust me
Assessing the moment
Assessing the moment, the moment
I'll cherish the day, I won't be afraid
I won't go astray
I'll cherish the day, I won't be afraid
I won't go astray
You won't catch me RUNNIN,
RUNNIN away
