

Black Sun

Death Cab for Cutie

There is whiskey in the water
and there is death upon the vine
There is fear in the eyes of your father and there is "Yours" and there is "Mine" There is a desert veiled in pavement and there's a city of seven hills and all our debris flows to the ocean To meet again, I hope it will How could something so fair
Be so cruel
When this black sun revolved
Around you!
There is an answer in a question and there is hope within despair and there is beauty in a failure,
And there are depths beyond compare There is a role of a lifetime and there's a song yet to be sung and there's a dumpster in the driveway
Of all the plans that came undone
How could something so fair
Be so cruel
When this black sun revolved
Around you!
How could something so fair
Be so cruel
When this black sun revolved
Around you!
There is whiskey in the water
and there is death upon the vine
and there is grace within forgiveness But it's so hard for me to find
How could something so fair
Be so cruel
When this black sun revolved
Around you!
How could something so fair
Be so cruel
When this black sun revolved
Around you!
