

Transcendence (feat. Ray Kurzweil)

Steve Aoki

In the neon future, we're going to transcend and overcome the limitations that have plagued us for thousands of years
We're going to overcome illness, ageing
We're going to be able to have more profound relationships
Profound music, art
We're going to become smarter
We're going to live longer
We're going to actually have radical life expansion, not just radical life extension
