

I Know (Acoustic Version)

Bayonne

I know
I know I know
I have something
For your minds, oh Flyin' home
White eyes
My little time zone You can take a stand
When you wanna make it right
Constantly mistaken that I can't say why enough
Chasing after something that I can leave behind
Never stop my dreaming' but she looks like a go-getter I see whats on her mind (I know)
I see it all the time (I know) Belong
Her Song
And I understand I'm not
Finding tones
Eyes closed
What if everybody won? I take your hands and you can take my mind
Certainly creative but I know we can do better Oh, oh Slipping onto something that I can redefine
Feeling more creative but I can't stay high enough
Oh, Oh
Yeah I know what's on your mind (I know)
I think I got her high (I know)
