

Cool

Chris Lane

Laying face first in an old box fan
Talking like Darth Vader
Nintendo, Tecmo Bowl
Beau Jackson, Oakland Raiders
Michael Jackson with a glove on my hand
Moonwalking like Billy Jean
No, I wasn't tryna change the world
All I ever really wanted to be was Cool, cool
Yeah, we all wanna be cool, cool
Yeah, we all wanna be
Lost a little love, broke a few hearts
Lost a few nights shutting down bars
Lost a good fake ID or two
We never lost our cool
Lost friends and we lost touch
Got a little older, but we never grew up
There's a reason new school wants to be old school
We never lost our cool, cool
We never lost our cool, cool
We never lost our cool Yeah, so cool
(Everybody wants to be cool)
So dang cool Good old boys and a hip-hop bass
808s and a hoopty hoopte Can't sever them southern roots
Way down yonder on the Chattahoochie
Played a little football, first game
Had to get the girls with the sick shades
Playing every song 'til your fingers bleed
Doing everything just tryna be Cool, cool
Yeah, we all wanna be cool, cool
Yeah, we all wanna be
Lost a little love, broke a few hearts
Lost a few nights shutting down bars
Lost a good fake ID or two
We never lost our cool
Lost friends and we lost touch
Got a little older, but we never grew up
There's a reason new school wants to be old school
We never lost our cool, cool
We never lost our cool, cool Yeah, we all wanna be Cooler than the whip on the top of the pie
Cool and the gang's celebrating the night
Kool Aid mustache, 4th of July
So dang cool, you don't have to try

You're just cool
Yeah, we all wanna be cool
Yeah, we all wanna beCool, coolYeah, we all wanna be cool, cool
Yeah, we all wanna be
We lost a little love, broke a few hearts
Lost a few nights shutting down bars
Lost a good fake ID or two
We never lost our cool
Lost friends and we lost touch
Got a little older, but we never grew up
There's a reason new school wants to be old school
We never lost our cool, cool
We never lost our cool, cool
We never lost our coolYeah, so cool
(Everybody just wants to be cool)
So dang cool
