

Paper Cut

Sophie Simmons

We started so strong, started so strong
But nothing went wrong, nothing went wrong
It's kinda annoying how perfect you are
It tears me apart, tears me apart I tried turning past the pages
You starched me with your touch
Sometimes nothing changes
And all that's left is us I love you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I want you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I want you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But it's not enough for me
I string you along, I string you along
It's hard to move on, hard to move on
But one day I'll leave you and then you'll see
You were nothing to me, nothing to me I tried turning past the pages
You starched me with your touch
Sometimes nothing changes
And all that's left is us I love you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I love you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I want you, like a paper cut
Yeah, you draw blood, you draw blood
But it's not enough for me
It's not enough for me
It's not enough for me
You're not enough for me
You're not enough for me
You're not enough for me
You starched the surface of me, without a mark
Now I leave you and your paper heart I love you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I love you, like a paper cut
You draw blood, you draw blood
But you never go too deep
I want you, like a paper cut

Yeah, you draw blood, you draw blood
But it's not enough for me It's not enough for me
It's not enough for me
You're not enough for me
It's not enough for me
You're not enough for me
