

Red Lighter

SoMo

A box of clothes, some written notes
Is all I have left now
She closed the door, no turning back
This time it is clear now
Forgotten words and hopeless hurt
All left in the past now
Maybe it's for the best,
I'll call it an angels test
My heart has no fear now
But you'll always be a part of me
And I got this red lighter
Red lighter
Red lighter
Red lighter
All these sparks are driving me insane
The memory of your eyes, hot in this flame
You can't take any of that away
You Let it burn out, got caught in the rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain, rain
Even after the storm, the clouds are reborn
But it's never been wetter
It must have been fate, two hearts didn't break
It's gotta get better
I'll keep these thoughts alive inside
To remind me whenever
I'm down and out I'll think about when you said forever
But you'll always be a part of me
Cuz I got this red lighter
Cuz I got this red lighter
Got this red lighter
Got this red lighter
All these sparks are driving me insane
The memory of your eyes, hot in this flame
You can't take any of that away
You Let it burn out, got caught in the rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain
But I've got this red lighter
Red lighter
Red lighter
Red lighter
All these sparks are driving me insane
The memory of your eyes, hot in this flame

You can't take any of that away
You let it burn out, got caught in the rain
Rain, rain, rain, rain, rain
