

This Wave (feat. Truth Hurts)

James Worthy

[Verse 1]:

James Worthy
It's been a little cold, by the time that I get home
You wanna roll up in the back so we get stoned
You sent a drunk text, I don't know where your minds going
You might want to close your eyes, lights on
I know you've been out all day, I caught the last flight
Just to have my way
Every time I pull up I know your waiting, so I can love into you
Take you on trips in my ride, I'll let you hop up inside this lovebed
Tell me everything you desire, and I'll give you a requirement
I know you like those flowers sent, and I'll take that as a compliment
Feeling your vibe so dominant, lips taste just like peppermint

[Chorus]:

Come & ride on this wave, this wave
I will never do you wrong, give it to you all night long
Come & ride on this wave, this wave
I will never do you wrong, give it to you all night long
Dreaming of you (8X)

[Breakdown]:

Ahhhhhhhh[Verse 2]:

Truth Hurts
You need a real chick, and I'm hoping you can see I'm it
A little headstrong, give it to you all night long babe
So don't you hesitate or make another woman wait
This is everything you could ever want or dream of Baby say you finally found real love
You don't have to look no further
There's something about this energy, everything is energy
Take me on trips, all the time, lend me your love
Inside your heart babe, I'll tell you my desires
It ain't about no money spent, you know I like them flowers sent
Just say you love me, now and then
Feeling your vibe, all these lips are heaven sent

[Chorus]:

Come & ride on this wave, this wave
I will never do you wrong, give it to you all night long
Come & ride on this wave, this wave
I will never do you wrong, give it to you all night long
Dreaming of you (8X)
