

White Noise Maker

Frank Black

You know, I hear a lot of talk
So I'm headin' for the stereo store
To get a white noise maker and turn it up to ten
Or maybe the interior
Of somewhere like Siberia
Yeah, the yak is back again
Black harvest moon over my head, yes it was
That billboard prose shinin' on me and it shines because
It's been so long since my Telstar
I hope it crashes in the sea
Or maybe the interior
Of somewhere like Siberia
Yakety-yak is back again
You know, I hear a lot of talk
So I'm headin' for the stereo store
To get a white noise maker and turn it up to ten
Black harvest moon over my head, yes it was
That billboard prose shinin' on me and it shines because
It's been so long since my Telstar
I hope it crashes in the sea
