

Shattered

Huffamoose

Stare at my reflection,
A face to me shown unknown.
Cleanse with perfection,
No man shall stop the seeds I've sown.
You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you.
I feel my energy rising.
Shatter me who shatter dares...
Don't trust your eyesight,
It will deceive your every glance at me.
I feel no sorrow, kill...
Like there's no tomorrow.
You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you.
I feel my energy rising.
No way to keep this fury controlled.
My hand shakes with anger.
Stare unto me as I shatter your soul.
Shattered.
Goats head,
Daed eyes.
No reconcile.
Submit
To none.
I am divine.
Shattered,
Shattered...
You call me evil.
I'm but the instrument of the Lord.
You call it senseless,
I see a need to cleanse this putrid world.
You see me crawl, but that's not true.
I'm just a step away from you.
I feel my energy rising.
No way to keep this fury controlled.
My hand shakes with anger,
Your life... Shattered.
