

The Iron and the Maiden

Defleshed

I had this imagine dream
But nothing's what it seem
So I put it out of my mind I am the iron
And she's the maiden Sence for reality start fade
I'm hooked up with this maid
Is this fact or is it fiction Or a deadly prediction
Which I hail
To the fact I am male
A life-long conviction I'm the iron
And she's the maiden
I seek
And the seeker will find
And by the end of this week
I'll start to rewind
Take it all from the start
I'm nothing close to the mundane
It is more like an art
Eventhough I'll go insane
