The years that we devoted
Have been the best of my life
I don't know what i'd do without it
Sometimes the liquor may cloud it
But girl no bother doubt it
And if there's still a doubt up inna your brain
Then just de-load it
I tell you baby girl
Upon the search true love we found it
And up the river of life together
Girl we gonna flood it
You know your daddy's home
I'm the king you're the queen
Pon di throne together we sit
We nah go crowd it[chorus]Well i don't know why we must fight
Lately baby things ain't right
I just wanna hold you so tight
Freak you girl untill morning light
You waan know why i drink so much
All these late nights in these clubs
It's cause i miss your tender touch
Baby girl we should be making loveI don't know why we must fight
Lately baby things ain't right
You're so tight
Mornin light
