

Black Woman & Child

Sizzla

Intro:

Who what, The Black nation

I love It

Ohh woh woh, oh woh woh

From di day mi born mi did dun know sey

My color a di first, I nuh last

So how yuh expect I fi duh certain things

Ohh woh woh, Oh woh woh

Black woman and child, yeh yeh yeah

For you I really have so much love

Dollar bills and coins will fade away

They could never make I so proud

Black woman and child, yeh yeh yeah

For you I really have so much love

Dollar bills and coins will fade away

They could never make I so proud

1. Motherland Africa still remain so fine

Empresses and Emperors living from in those time

I know you are the first to give birth unto mankind

Now let me say oh the earth Queen Omega is divine take I to Zion I give thy praise

Thats where my covenant will be always

How have you been going through those stage

Of being away for many days

Who will trod upon the road just to make things great

You and yuh children, I see them in front yuh face

I say keep them close, as you increase their faith

Marcus Garvey dun say, a him save the future fi days

Ohhh

Natural in your choice, in your way to your needs

You were born of the one to conceive

You and yuh child go smooth as the breeze

Chorus3. Who are those standing at your door

Dressed in Ithiopian clothes coming more and more

Oh what a lovely day, the blessing is so pure

Someone conceive today, of this I am sure

Eh heh yeaah...From Top
