

New Kings

Danity Kane

I never been a rose without a thorn
I never been a spoiled princess who gets everything she wants
I never cared to have all the riches
I just wanted the art Everyone is tryin the same thing
We would rather be the new kings
While you're walking on red carpets
We living reckless in Doc Martens
Everyone is on the same thing
We would rather be the new kings
We love the simple things
We are the others and we reign
Said we be the new king
Said we got bigger dreams
You ain't gotta worry bout we we we
You ain't gotta worry bout me
Said we be the new king
Said we got bigger dreams
You ain't gotta worry bout we we we
You ain't gotta worry bout me I never cared to dress in what's expected, yeah
I always wanted to stand apart
I never gave a damn about all your opinions
I just did what's in my heart
Everyone is tryin the same thing
We would rather be the new thing
While you're walking on red carpets
We living reckless in Doc Martens
Everyone is on the same thing
We would rather be the new kings
We love the simple things
We are the others and we reign, oh Said we be the new king
Said we got bigger dreams
You ain't gotta worry bout we we we
You ain't gotta worry bout me
Said we be the new king
Said we got bigger dreams
You ain't gotta worry bout we we we
You ain't gotta worry bout me We the new kings
And we got bigger dreams
You ain't gotta worry worry bout we
You ain't gotta worry worry bout me
We the new kings
Said we got bigger dreams

You ain't gotta worry bout me
You ain't gotta worry bout me Everyone is tryin the same thing
We would rather be the new thing
While you walkin on carpets
We living in Doc Martens
Oh everyone's saying
We be doing shit our way
We kings
We the new kings You ain't never seen a king like we
We the new kings
You ain't never seen a king like we
We the new kings
