

Saint Cecilia

Foo Fighters

There ain't no secrets anymore
My name's been hanging on the outside your door
Just an old eyesore I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home To your house of broken bones
You're out of sight, I'm out of mind
Been sitting watching your pictures drying on the line Just a game of mine
I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home
To your house of broken bones
I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by
I got this feeling, I can't keep it down anymore
Bring me some healing
Saint Cecilia, carry me home to your house of broken bones
I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by
I know no matter what I say
Days will come and go
No matter what I say
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by
I know no matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Days will come and go
No matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by

I know no matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Days will come and go
No matter what I say (Saint Cecilia)
Nothing's set in stone
No matter what I say
Days go by
