

Forever Survivor (feat. Macy Gray)

Far East Movement

Oh, and I'm a forever survivor Sometimes the road ain't that easy
And honey, all money ain't the same
I guess that love ain't that sleezy
And sometimes the crowd ain't that loud
Seems like the years fly away
But I find it strange when times get harder
I will survive another day Reach the sky, the smell the roses
I will play for you like it's my last show
I'm a forever survivor, forever survivor
So much stronger, so much wiser
It's the power that's inside me
Forever survivor, forever survivor
And I wanna tell ya
I wanna shout
I wanna scream it out loud
Forever survivor, forever survivor Maybe the storm will never end
Maybe my heart was meant to break
If I get tomorrow, I'll try again
I'm gonna find a better way
Tie up my shoes to keep from fallin'
I'm countin' every step I take
Walkin' ahead until I'm found
I will survive another day
I'm a survivor, survivor, I'm a survivor
F-f-forever, f-f-forever, f-f-forever, f-f-forever, survivor
Reach the sky, the smell the roses
I will play for you like it's my last show
I'm a forever survivor, forever survivor
So much stronger, so much wiser
It's the power that's inside me
Forever survivor, forever survivor
Forever, forever
Forever survivor, forever survivor And I wanna tell ya
I wanna shout
I wanna scream it out loud
Forever survivor, forever survivor Forever
I'm a survivor
I am forever
I'm a survivor
