remember niggas injuries from the squeeze of a gun and held the trees in my lungs pushin v's to the slums without a blood test i cant believe thats my son im just a huslah on the run, everyday bendin corners pullin on a strong one straight out hyphy goin we was blessed with the recipe searching for the rest of me blinded by the light, going on ecstasy if it wasnt for this gangsta shit i wonder where the west will be
