

Face

Mike Gordon

At first I saw the face and then the eyes and then the wink and the lace and legs and thigh and step in stride but instead you went too high too high never see you again I saw your face and then your hands and then your heels and the race and the crowd and the stage and the climb and the dot and the surfing over heads coming closer to my face 'til your eyes next to mine so white no blinks no smile dance like you like to like me instigator, instigator dance like your like to like me instigator, instigator At first you were saving face slide away the back alley door And the waving me outside and your Kia's flat tire and the spare and the jack and the winch you inspired me to pump with your scaring pressing down and your boyfriend and the punch unconscious on the ground At first I heard the bass and then the drums the muffled pound and the crawl and the grey metal door and the slam inside and I'm sucked up in the marsh scoring angel back again the spinning pinball in the bin smears lipstick on my ear yelling something dance like you like to like me instigator, instigator
instigator, instigator Do you know if anyone likes you instigator?
They don't get a chance to stand face to face Don't you think you might entice reciprocators? If you ever want to feel the love coming your way At last I see your face and all the fake has been replaced and the scarf oozing down to a dimple just a little pressed in like graffiti on your skin indicating that you're in for a synchronized break dance swim through the crowd and you face me dance like you like to like me instigator, instigator
instigator, instigator dance like you like to like me

(first I saw your face)
instigator, insinuator
