

Captain On

Periphery

Somewhere beyond this sight.
Nothing so clear.
Reaching in endless night.
Colors disappear. Separate the air we breathe.
Sell the lies we all will speak.
Don't ever ask the questions challenging the prophecies. Silent storm.
Following the stars.
(Silent storm. Following the stars.)
Shifting form.
Dwell in reverie. Resurrecton in time.
We suppress every reason.
Through these eyes perception bleeds mortality from my soul.
Nothing can change.
The reality of it all will never be left for us to find. Somewhere within the glow, enter.
We fall.
Holding the shadow close.
We hear the call.
Solace finding even flow in life. Don't ever ask the questions challenging the prophecies.
Pleasant this solitude in violent forms and waves.
The final blow is struck. Silent storm.
Following the stars.
(Silent storm. Following the stars.)
Shifting form.
Dwell in reverie.
Moving forward on the path.
Deliver us from the daggers in our hearts.
(Come back to the human calling.) Pleasant this solitude in violent forms and waves.
The final blow is struck.
