

Don't Ask Cuz I Don't Know

Jon Bellion

Yeah. See check the bounce out
Welcome to the dope flow, welcome to the bounce mane
Live inside my music, so welcome to my house mane
Welcome, I'm a beat carpenter and I'm a wordsmith
Welcome to that brand spanking new you never heard shit
Welcome to the kid that bring a industry a new day
But some hater chefs cooking bullshit souffle
Welcome to the grindstone, welcome to the pipe dream
Bounced up out of college cuz I'm taking care of my dream
Welcome to the definition of a freaking lab rat
With just a dream, a dollar, and a backpack
But all he cares about is family and good tunes
So don't ask him about his next move
I haven't even picked out my socks
How could I tell you about my future
Tell you bout my future
How could I tell you bout
How could I tell you bout, t-t-t-tell you bout
Please don't ask me what my next move is
Cuz I just don't know (echo)
I just don't know, I just don't know, yeah
Middle finger to the sky like this
Cuz I just don't know
I just don't know, I just don't know, yeah
We just don't know, we just don't know, yeah
A Beautiful Mind
Welcome to the positive, negatives a no-go
Young Sensei building up his dojo
Young Boston, got the smile and the mojo
He dreams Yachts while he sleeping in a rowboat
Almost there, almost there, so we go-go
Go, go, stop, stop. Stop, stop? No, No
I'm a Wizard of the Oz. Toto
Dancing with a Dorothy, telling her to "go slow" Cuz I just don't know
Cuz I just don't know
Ohh
I just don't know, I just don't know, yeah
We just don't know, we just don't know, yeah
We just don't know, we just don't know, yeah
