

Heart Like an Ocean (feat. Tricia McTeague)

Paul Van Dyk & Mark Eteson

Take away your hands and release the pressure there's no need for pain yes I'm alive still here Move away the crowds there is nothing more to see the heart can go through battles and come out ready to challenge with more to give
A heart like an ocean
travels wide and runs so deep Damn but you're not out 'cause the rise will get de cheer a heart can go through battles and come back ready to handle with more to give
travels wide and runs so deep
