

Love Me

Katy Perry

I lost myself in fear of losing you
I wish I didn't do
But I did
I lost my own, my own identity
Forgot that you picked me for me But now, I don't negotiate with insecurities
They always seem to get the best of me
I found the head to love myself, the way I want you to Love me, no more second guessing
No, there's no more questioning
I'll be the one to find who I'm gonna be
No concealing feelings, or changing seasonally
I'm gonna love myself, the way I want you to love me
Sometimes I wish my skin was a costume
That I could just unzip, and strip
But who I am is who I'm meant to be
And it's who you are in love, in love with
So now, I don't negotiate with insecurities They come and have to take a backseat
I know I have to let myself the way I want you to Love me, no more second guessing No, there's no more questioning
I'll be the one to find who I'm gonna be
No concealing feelings, or changing seasonally
I'm gonna love myself, the way I want you to love me
No more standing in my own way
(Let's get deeper, let's get closer)
No more standing in my own way
(I want you to love me)
No more standing in my own way
(Let's get deeper, let's get closer)
No more standing in my own way
(I want you to love me)
Love me, no more second guessing
No, there's no more questioning I'll be the one to find who I'm gonna be
No concealing feelings, or changing seasonally
I'm gonna love myself, the way I want you to love me
Love me, no more second guessing
No, there's no more questioning
I'll be the one to find who I'm gonna be
No concealing feelings, or changing seasonally
I'm gonna love myself, the way I want you to love me
