

You Bring Me Down

Leona Lewis

You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down What is the problem
Are you taking me seriously
Is it a joke to you
Or maybe im a fool Why am i trying
So hard to be the girl that you need
How is this fair to me
When you break through This is to much
Dont call it love
You are the reason its so hard to trust
Boy this aint what i wanted
And now its got to stop
You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down No more tears
Why did i let you have so much control
I gave my arm to you
And you pushed me away Why are you here oh
Dont you see im letting you go
The damage is done baby
I have nothing to say Its gone to far
Dont know who you are
I think its better that we are apart Babe i know where i am
And i know where your near
You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down You let me down, thought i had had found
Some one to catch me when i hit the ground
You bring me down, down, down way down (ooooh) Would you like it if I did the same thing to
You and i lasted
Walking years on ma shoes Boy theres no excuse
Cause of what you did theres no me and you Would you like it if
I did the same thing
You wouldnt of liked
Walking in time Boy theres no excuse
Thats who you are and im so over you You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down You let me down, thought i had had found
Some one to catch me when i hit the ground
You bring me down, down, down way down Down

Down
Stop bringing me, stop bringing me
Down down
Ooh
