

Die For You (Club Remix) [feat. Skibadee]

Ironik & Skibadee

payback now, i die for you
and i still would
Is it love if there's no passion ?
and cannot work if we're not happy
would you be here if i weren't rappin?
Is your life planned out or you waiting for something that's never gonna happen (be honest) im learnin if there's no lesson is everything in life a dumb lesson?(is it?)
are you honest when you say you miss me?
are your eyes closed when you kiss me?
is it the true if you too crumb a tipsy (be honest)
are you stressed, when you get home from work or is that really how you feel?
are you unhappy?
when you tell me that you love me
do you look in my eyes
cause i really cant tell exactly (be honest down)
and i only wanna know i love lets be honest with each other but this christians are a most (be honest)
but is all comes down to one thing (and as trust)
and all you faces will
she standing at my door
i through a heart right out(i to heart right out)
and broken one too many time she told me one too many lies he gave it one so many tries what are you waiting for to life i just worried girl i die for you (i die for you) (girl) i just worried girl i die for you (i die for you) girl i just worried of what a night what i want it im worry so sorry i just worried (worried worried worried worried)ohhohohoh payback now, i die for you (keep it real)
and i still would
