

Give It Up (feat. Wayne Static)

SOiL

You get in my space
You get in my way
I cant do nothing
Nothings wrongKeep on pushing
Up in my face
I'm gonna leave ya
Face down in the dirtFirst you said it
Dont think you get it
One more time i'll
Break you downYou came out of no where
You only got yourself to blame
I gave all the warnings
There's nothing left to offer
Give it up x3I can not take it
You're bothering me
What's your problem
Just get lostInsist on prying
Your gonna get hurt
One more word
I'll burst and I'll break your bonesI'm bleeding from my ears again
Listen to this shit I have
Bleeding from my ears again
Listen to this shit I have
Bleeding from my ears again
Bleeding from my ears
You came out of no where
You only got yourself to blame
I gave all the warnings
There's nothing left to offerYou'll get what you deserve
You'll get what you have earned
I gave all the warnings
Theres nothing left to offerGive It Up x3
