

Punchline (Acoustic)

Aidan Martin

I dont know
If I am in the crowd do
I stand alone
You know all the words, but dont sing along
Everything single eye has been watching me
But they dont see
That I am a just another, trying to find a way
To hold on to your loving
Laugh away the pain
I dont need no cameras to see a point of view
I need someone to turn to
I guess my heart never learns
No use in finding the words
If youre never here when it hurts
All your mistakes
I dont want to make
I deserve the truth, but you lie
I dont know why Im so surprised
No matter how hard I try
If Im just a joke
Waiting for the punchline
You blessed love that we found
You laugh away
So laugh away
Im just a joke, you dont know
How you take
I guess my heart never learns
No use in finding the words
If youre never here when it hurts
All your mistakes
I dont to want to make
I deserve the truth, but you lie
I dont know why Im so surprised
No matter how hard I try
If Im still just a joke
Waiting for a punchline
