

Speak

Gary Go

I dont wanna fall asleep, cause I dont wanna wake up here again.
If i can hear myself speak, I dont think I could talk a word again.

Ive not got a words with way.
Ive not got much to do or say, nobody let me in,
i'll never finish so why begin?

Give it some time,
give yourself hope
or i'll give you mine,
cause I dont need it anymore.
Theres no accounting for taste, lets agree to disagree.

Im a good person going to waste, you can leave

but ive got to live with me.

Give it some time,
give yourself hope
or i'll give you mine,
cause I dont need it anymore.

Sorry i've spoke I had all my eggs in one basket,
it broke,

but I dont need them anymore.

Oh ive tried,
this well has rung dry.

do you fall a thousand times before you fly?

Time goes by,
being living a lie.

Gotta fall a thousand times before we fly.

So give it some time,
give yourself hope,
or i'll give you mine
cause I dont need it anymore.

I'm letting it go

I know what I like and dont like what I dont know cause I dont know me anymore.

I must be crazy to be me,
must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
must be crazy to be me.

I must be crazy to be me,
must be crazy to be me.

I must be,
crazy to be me,
must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
I must be crazy to be me,
i'm letting it go.
