

Here at Last (Anzbern Remix)

William Black, Rico & Miella

Running in the sea of colour after drowning in the sea
West is on the winds of summer after fallin' to our knee
If I was a light, the starving night have passed
The sea is here we're fear at We rise so high, above the rest
So close your eyes and lose your breath
Our hearts collide, beat through our chest
We're so alive, we're here at last! We're here at last!
Ohhh
We're at last
Ohhh
We're here at last!
Here at last
The sea is here we're fear at
The sea is here we're fear at Drifting in towards -?- water and finally came free
Lay it in your -?- of colours and finally stay free
If I was a light, the starving night have passed
The sea is here we're fear at We rise so high, above the rest
So close your eyes and lose your breath
Our hearts collide, beat through our chest
We're so alive, we're here at last! We're here at last!
Ohhh
We're at last
Ohhh
We're here at last!
Here at last
Ohhh
Here at last
Ohhh
Here at last Ohhh
Here at last
