

Limp

Jonathan McReynolds

Hey now, it's a little deep
HMMMMM, hMMMMM
I'm tired, broken, innocence stolen
And I know I'm, a different man
See life hits, and life hurts
Think I've seen, some of life's worst
But you've been here, so you understand
See I fell, and I broke something
But I couldn't tell, cause I kept running
Away from, your love and grace
So my trips, and my pains
My failures, they only make
Me desperate, to seek your face
The devil hoped this injury would make me stop
And take defeat, but I know Jesus walks with me
So I'll just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp, uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh I'm imperfect, so I slipped up
And I had my heart, ripped up
But you're lifter, of my head
So please come, and please heal
How I think and how I feel, and I'll live by what you say
And you said
Heavy laden come to me
The sick, the flawed, the lame, the weak
And I'll be everything you need
So I'll just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp, uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh
Just keep on walking with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp uh huh Heyyyy
Limps are, every weakness
Limps are every flaw
That keeps us, from having, an otherwise perfect walk

And we were born, handicapped
But God gives, us strength back
And all that you lack, if you just keep on walking with your limpMmmmmm
I'll pursue, my victory
Cause when they beat you, you look just like me
You were struggling, with your passion, and your love
It kept you walking with your limp
Calvary walking with your limp
No matter what they said, you kept walking with your limp
Yea that's my Savior with His limp
Just so one day,
I could walk with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp,
And I could still be loved, even with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
And I could still be used, even with my
Limp, limp, limp, limp
And I could still be saved, even with my limp
Ohhhh, so I'll just keep on walking
Even with my limp
