

The Fall

Imagine Dragons

Maybe I'm broken, maybe I'm wrong
I could've spoken sooner than I should've
Only the good die old
That's what they told me, but I don't know
Maybe I'm breaking up with myself
Maybe I'm thinking I should just keep to
The things that I've been told
Wait for the colors to turn to gold
Do you know? Do you know?
You're all I know
You're all I know
When everything
Is crashing down
You're all I know
You're all I know
(I'm ready for the fall
I'm ready for everything that I believed in to drift away
Ready for the leaves
Ready for the colors to burn to gold & crumble away)
Maybe I'm dusting to be destroyed
Always a reason breaking me After my meets in the dead of night
I keep on praying to see the light
Maybe I'm breaking up with myself
Maybe I'm thinking I should just keep to
The things that I've been told
Wait for the colors to turn to gold
Do you know?
Do you know?
You're all I know
You're all I know
That everything
Is crashing down
You're all I know
You're all I know
Do you know? Do you know?
You're all I know
You're all I know
That everything
Is crashing down You're all know
You're all know
(I'm ready for the fall
I'm ready for everything that I believed in to drift away

Ready for the leaves
Ready for the colors to burn to gold & crumble away) (You're the one, you're the one You're the one who helped me see
You're the one, you're the one
Oh, you gave it all to me)
(You're the one, you're the one
You're the one who helped me see
You're the one, you're the one
Oh, you gave it all to me)
(You're the one, you're the one
You're the one who helped me see
You're the one, you're the one
Oh, you gave it all to me)
(You're the one, you're the one
You're the one who helped me see
You're the one, you're the one
Oh, you gave it all to me)
(You're the one, you're the one
You're the one who helped me see
You're the one, you're the one
Oh, you gave it all to me)
(I'm ready for the fall
Ready for the leaves
Ready for the colors to burn to gold & crumble away)
