Craft Spells

Take the time to know
How alone you are
In this world just to find
Death is on your mindAs you stand still You realize where you are
In a world, aged and bright
The moon after the tide/time(?)How was I to show Before the time I spent alone in my head, the world nobody knows
As I laid still, the wind carried the clouds
To feel slow and kind
The moon after the tide/time (?)
My mind after the tide/time (?)
