

Echo

Blanca

One thousand four hundred and forty minutes
Every day I gotta decide, how am I gonna live it?
I'm gonna take a chance to be the difference
Everyday I wanna find
I'm alive for something more than what I planned
Higher than my ways
Greater than I am All for you
I was made to leave a mark
Carry fire in my heart
No matter where I go
I want my life to echo you
I was meant to make you shine
Be a reflection of your light
In everything I do
I want my life to echo you, you, you
To echo you, you, you I hear you calling me beyond my limits
I gotta trust your enough
I'm not alone, you are with me
I wanna know that when the race is finished
Every step, every breath,
I lived for something more than what I planned
Higher than my ways
Greater than I am
This is all for you I was made to leave a mark
Carry fire in my heart
No matter where I go
I want my life to echo you
I was meant to make you shine
Be a reflection of your light
In everything I do
I want my life to echo you, you, you
To echo you, you, you Whatever you ask
Whatever you want
Use me
Choose me
Wherever you go
I wanna go to till I echo, echo you Whatever you ask
Whatever you want
Use me for your glory
Wherever you go
I wanna go to till I echo, echo, echo, echo you I was made to leave a mark
Carry fire in my heart

No matter where I go
I want my life to echo you I was meant to make you shine
Be a reflection of your light
In everything I do
I want my life to echo you, you, you
To echo you, you, you Whatever you ask
Whatever you want
Use me
I wanna go to till I echo, echo you Whatever you ask
Whatever you want
Use me for your glory
Wherever you go
I wanna go to till I echo, echo, echo, echo you
