

Static

Kamelot

Stay
Until the morning light reveals my ruins
I was starving, now I hunger
To feel
And let your curiosity dismantle me Now I just need your breath
Like a veil upon my skin Come lay with me
This chemistry is static
Like space debris
We're perfectly chaotic
So come and merge your storm with mine
And save me
Stay
Hold me as I'm trying to survive
And wrap me in your comfort
My fears
I give them all to you to keep
Them safe for me Cause I just need your breath
Like a veil upon my skin
Come lay with me
This chemistry is static
Like space debris
We're perfectly chaotic
So come and merge your storm with mine
And save me
