if i could calculate a score of unbelievable acts stand my head maybe juggle three alley cats take out the king kong still feel strongunleash voodoo with the use of a chicken bat feet frogs tongue and not take a licken walk in the rain plugged into a toaster i get a charge but still feel the mostatake out the mummy the werewolf and dog man save a drowning princess from the toxic avenger's plan head on with godzilla and not flinch a muscle outwit captain kurk without the slightest of hussle drown a fish or maybe push a bird off a cliff say no to the go-go but then take on a fat spliff grow an extra arm coming out of my forehead come back from the grave to walk with the undeadi couldn't do it could you do it?
no i couldn't do it could you do it?you know i don't like to do this (x2)i could nurture a flower to grow into a triffid spit lethal poison leave your body rigid i've talked to satan i've talked to god without standing in the flesh with my hand on my big rodi couldn't do it could you do it?
could you do it?
