

Superficial

Lawrence

I'm sick of hearing songs about the boy who was ignored and the girls who did him wrong they said that he was shy and they claimed he wasn't manly oh, how that made him cry but now he's rich and famous, such a pity ain't it they missed the opportunity to catch a rising star and to me it seems obnoxious mr. singer are you not just insecure and now you're singin why'd they have to be so superficial now you wish they'd be more superficial it seems to me to be so artificial so go and write your song, just know you're the superficial one you're so superficial mr. folds can take a pass (cuz) the doors were so damn angry they said to kiss his ass you know a kiss . myself (not sure what's here) oh so for all the other losers the begger is now the chooser who'd 've thought you would be the coolest kid in class and you're laughing in their faces at the chance that they have wasted cuz the nice guys don't always finish last
and now you're singin
seems to me to be so artificial
just know that you're the superficial one you're so superficial I just know that you're the superficial one you're so superficial who are you to say that she's not better off she could be married with some children to a doctor in vermont and if you're thinking 'bout these girls it's hypocritical you're not out of their league if you're still stuck in their world and if things for me are well you know I thank those who helped me and I won't punish no one else cuz I don't need to tell regret I might forgive, I might forget Cuz I'm the bigger man Except maybe say Go fuck yourself why'd they have to be so superficial

but it's you that is the superficial one you're so superficial stupid superficial one
