

Panty Wetter

Trey Songz

Here we go, here again, here again
I wanna know, how you been, how you been
Such a surprise, didn't think you'd come back so soon
Got drink in my cup girl, throwed up but I'm with you tonight
Bet you, ain't think I will come so hard upon this Chapter V
I've toured the world and made some money, learned some different things
And now I'm here to show your body what these niggas cant
Your panty dropper has returned and I'm goin' alone
To please your body is my mission if you don't know
Just take our time I just wanna go nice and slow
First thing take off them clothes
But you can leave them panties on
You've had my love before
So you know I might make 'em soak
'Cause I'm your panty wetter
I'm your panty wetter
You ain't gotta take 'em off
Just pull it to the side
Don't you try to fight girl
Ain't no place to hide
I'm your panty wetter
And you know it don't, it won't
It know better
No one is gonna get you wetter
Here we are you and me, (you and me)
A special show made for two to see
We 'bout to make the best love you've ever dreamed
But you gon' have to come about them clothes
You can leave them panties on
You've had this love before
So you know I 'bout to make you soak
'Cause I'm your panty wetter
I'm your panty wetter
You ain't gotta take 'em off
Just pull it to the side
Don't you try to fight girl
Ain't no place to hide
I'm your panty wetter
And you know it don't, it won't
It can't know you better
No one is gonna get you wetter
Break it down
All the way down
I'm your panty wetter, I'm yours I'm yours
Panty wetter
You ain't gotta take 'em off
Just pull it to the side
Don't you try to fight girl

Ain't no place to hide
I'm your panty wetter
And you know it don't, it won't
It can't know you better
No one is gonna get you wetter
No one is gonna get you better than a fountain
Waterfall off my mountain
It's such beauty when we be
I'm the sand and you're the sea
I'm the pipe girl you're the leak
It's only one thing left you can do for me
Take 'em off, take 'em off, take 'em off
Please
