

Unless It Hurts

Galantis

I hear violas I hear violins
Heartbreaking melodies I wanna sing
I'm feeling it all for you
I'm feeling it all for you
Now I don't fit these shoes I'm standing in
And I've been growing me a pair of wings
I'm feeling it all for you
I'm feeling it all for you I might lose a little blood along the way, but I'm diving in headfirst
If I had to hit a train to make you stay It ain't love unless it hurts
It ain't love
It ain't love unless it
It ain't love
It ain't love unless it hurts
I'll pick my broken heart up off the floor
Give me back mine and then I'll give you yours
I'm feeling it all for you
I'm feeling it all for you
I wanna work all night
And dream all day
It's like my world has fallen
Out of shape
I'm feeling it all for you
I'm feeling it all for you I might lose a little blood along the way, but I'm diving in headfirst
If I had to hit a train to make you stay anyways and any how
I might lose a little blood along the way, but I'm diving in headfirst
If I had to hit a train to make you stay
It ain't love unless it hurts
(It ain't love)
It ain't love unless it
(It ain't love)
It ain't love unless it hurts
