My Heart Belongs to Me

Barbra Streisand

I got the feelin' the feelin's gone My heart has gone to sleep One of these mornin's I'll be gone My heart belongs to me. Can we believe in fairytales? Can love survive when all else fails? Can't hide the feelin' the feelin's gone My heart belongs to me.But now my love, hey didn't I love you But we knew what had to be Somehow my love, I'll always love you But my heart belongs to me. Put out the light and close your eyes Come lie beside me Don't ask why. Can't hide the feelin' the feelin's gone My heart belongs to me.(girls) But now my love, hey didn't I love you Didn't I love you Didn't I love you Didn't I love you, baby. Don't cry my love I'll always love you But my heart belongs to me.I got the feelin't he feelin's gone
