

Waking Up

10 Years

Distance and space
Allow emotions to age, into faith
Our bodies may end up alone
But closeAre you there?
Can you hear me?
Are you there?
Can you feel me?Just in the way
All your fingertips touch me
They are healing, one day
We'll all fall prey
Are you there?
Can you hear me?
Are you there?
Can you feel me?Waking up
Good morning to you, my dear I'm
Waking up
Enduring my biggest fears ofDistance away
A weight
Distance awayAre you there?
Can you hear me?
Are you there?
Can you feel me?
Waking up
Good morning to you, my dear I'm
Waking up
Enduring my biggest fear love
