

Chocolate Drops

Iggy Pop

When your love of life is an empty beach don't cry, don't cry When your enemy has you in his reach don't die, don't die
When it's painful to express the pains you feel, inside
When it hurts to share because they're bare and real, so real So every day is judgement day, I will pray, I will pray When there is no one to share that empty chair, well OK, OK
When you get to the bottom you 're near the top where shit turns into chocolate drops
When you get to the bottom you 're near the top where shit turns into chocolate drops, drops
So fly, so fly
So fly, so fly
When your love of life is an empty beach
don't cry
When it's painful to express the things you feel inside
When you get to the bottom you 're near the top
where shit turns into chocolate drops
When you get to the bottom you 're near the top
where shit turns into chocolate drops There's nothing in the stars if you fail to move There's nothing in the dark it's just some old excuse hangin'on, let it go
