Predicting war
Predicting life
Predicting when disaster strikesLiving life
Living death
Living on borrowed timeEnd of time
End of days
End of all the things you saveSee the future
See the past
What does it have in store?Through the years
Through the eyes and the lies
What he sees has become no surprise
Through the years
And the tears and the lies
Condemned to hell
Condemned to fate
Condemned to timeSacrament
Sacrilige
Altar to a sacrificeSmell the blood
Smell the death
Smell the stench of demons breathFilled with love
Filled with hate
Filled with hope that dissipatesFallen hero
Fallen God
Fallen victims that we've become
Through the years
Through the eyes and the lies
What he sees has become no surpriseThrough the years
And the tears and the lies
Condemned to hell
Condemned to fate
Condemned to timeWhen you step into the circle
Prepare yourself as we choose your fate
Your fateAs you're bleeding at the altar
For your sins with blood you'll pay
You'll payThrough the years and the tears
Through the lies, All the pain
End of time, End of days
End of life, End of pain(Solo - Alex)Predicting war
