

Caroline

JR JR

Been in the hospital for days
All of the guys on my floor think we're boys now
They don't catch me counting like this
One down, two left and how can i tell if drugs or my feelings now?
What if I don't see the point
in everybody wasting so much time
and energy
worrying about my thing
its my thing
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Hold on
Hold on
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
I don't wanna be you
I don't wanna be you
It's in our nature to engage
With the voice from within pushing us into action
But I can't tell if it's your voice trapped inside me
So let me make sure that I'm making my own mind up
What if I don't see the point
In everybody wasting so much time
And energy
Worrying about my thing
It's my thing
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Hold on
Hold on
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
I don't wanna be you
I don't wanna be you
And in the girl's wing
They care for you
So maybe I'm a little feminine now

And in the girl's wing
They care for you
So maybe I'm a little feminine now
And in the girl's wing
They care for you
So maybe I'm a little feminine now
What if I don't see the point
In everybody wasting so much time
And energy
Worrying about my thing
It's my thing
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
No one's gonna live my life for me
Hold on
Hold on
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
I don't wanna be you
I don't wanna be you
No one's gonna live my life for me
No one's gonna live my life for me
Oh now Caroline
I don't wanna be you
I don't wanna be you
