

Flaws

Kierra Sheard

some times i talk a little too much too listen enough sometimes its way to easy for me to be my self but sometimes i hate the way i look when i look in the mirror what a look from you i know,()
my flaws
you love, you love my flaws think they make me beautiful you dont see them as flaws at all thats why
thats why, thats why i love you cuz you are, you are the one who
the one who loves my flaws sometimes i get a little unsure alot insecure sometimes i know i might say some words that might cause some pain sometimes i get in my own way im way too much to put up with but you put up with it all()
my flaws
you dont see them as flaws at all
thats why
thats why, thats why i love you
cuz you are, you are the one who
you think im everything when i think im nothing when i hate myself you still love me love me yeahmy flaws
you love, you love my flaws
you dont see them as flaws at all
thats why
cuz you are, you are the one who the one who loves my flawsmy flaws you love, you love my flaws
