

Tokyo Nights

Digital Farm Animals, Shaun Frank & Dragonette

I wanna go where you go
Blowing your smoke out the window
Float away back to those Tokyo nights
You keep me up wide awake
We fall asleep on the floor in old sheets and Champagne
And I wanna fall like snowfall
Just to melt on your pillow
Drift away back to those Tokyo nights
Where we were so out of place
We fall asleep in my car
To songs that all sound the same
I wanna go where you go
Blowing your smoke out the window
Drift away back to those Tokyo nights
You keep me up wide awake
We fall asleep in my car
To songs that all sound the same
And it really don't matter which way we go
You got effect like domino
Finally up and down we go
How we get back there, I don't know
And it really don't matter how fast we go
You got effect like domino
You take me down, down I wanna go
Back to those Tokyo nights
Those Tokyo nights, I feel it
I wanna fall like we fell
For the first time in the hotel
Miss the way we fell asleep in our clothes
But you were too shy to stay
Walking you home it still feels like it was just yesterday
And it really don't matter which way we go
You got effect like domino
Finally up and down we go
How we get back there, I don't know
And it really don't matter how fast we go
You got effect like domino
You take me down, down I wanna go
Back to those Tokyo nights
Those Tokyo nights, I feel it
Back to those Tokyo nights
Those Tokyo nights, I feel it
I wanna go where you go
Blowing your smoke out the window

Drift away
And I wanna fall like snow fall
Just to melt on your pillow
Drift away, back to those Tokyo nights
Where we were so out of place
We fall asleep in my car
To songs that all sound the same I wanna go
Back to those Tokyo nights
Those Tokyo nights, I feel it
Back to those Tokyo nights
