

Rewind

Adam Turley

Where did you go? I need you badly.
Are you far from home? Do you think about me?
It's hard letting go. Are you?
Did you mean to lie when you said "you don't have to worry"
Did you think you would be better
on your own?
Only place I can see you is on my phone.
We died, but I'm still holding on.
Why am I so afraid of letting go?
Have I lost my mind? The summer's over and I can't rewind to
When we were closer.
When we had new life. I miss those green eyes.
Stop the time. Is it to late for us to hit rewind?
To late for us to hit rewind. Don't need a rope, cause I'm free fallen'
hang up the phone, cause we're not talkein'
But, I can't let go, of you.
Did you know you lied when you said I was the only one?
Did you think you would be better on your own?
Only place I can see you is on my phone.
(Yeah, yeah)
We died, but I'm still holding on.
(No)
Why am I so afraid of letting go?
Have I lost my mind? The summer's over and I can't rewind to
when we were closer
When we had new life. I miss those green eyes.
Stop the time. Is it to late for us to hit rewind?
To late for us to hit rewind
To late for us to hit rewind (yeah)
To late for us to hit rewind
