

All Comes Back to You (Solarstone Pure Mix)

ReOrder

You were the sun
The song I used to sing
You were the ocean
Running through my veins Until we get too high
Rockets in the sky
Those days are gone
But sometimes I try [Refrain]
I can feel lights of summer
We were running through the streets
I can see the world as it was
When you were with me
(yeah)
And it takes me to the places
I'd forget now if I could
I can't help that in everything I do
It all comes back to you
[/Refrain] I remember nights
Blurry in my mind
Discovering each other
'Til the morning light Yeah, you told me it was 'always'
That was long ago
And now I'm searching for
The love I used to know {Refrain}
(yeah)
For you
(yeah)
It all comes back to you
For you
(yeah)
It all comes back for you
